Here's What the Plasterers Think of ROCK PLASTER.

WE THE UNDERSIGNED, contracting plasterers, after much experience and observation, take pleasure in testifying to the practical character of ROCK PLASTER, and while it will remove a not inconsiderable amount of business, namely that of patching, we advocate its use, as it enables us to do work and guarantees the results, and enables us to carry on our trade at all seasons of the year, and modernizes that part of building enterprise which has undergone practically no improvement in the last two thousand years, placing the business of the plasterer on the same footing as that occupied by the other trades through the advent of machinery and improved methods.

THE SUPREME POWER
An Important Circular From the Department of Justice.

POWERS OF UNITED STATES MARSHALS

Every Male Citizen Over Fifteen Years of Age, of Whatever Business or Profession May be Summoned on His Posse.

An Important Circular.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—The department of justice, through Solicitor General Aldrich, acting attorney-general, has issued an important circular statement as to the powers of federal and state officers in the election polling places. He says:

"The attention of the department having been called to alleged instructions to the police and state officers in Alabama, Arkansas and New York with reference to their conduct toward such deputy United States marshals as may be in attendance at the polling places, the Attorney-General Aldrich states as follows:

"Such instructions bring them into effect within the provisions of section 5518 and 5522 of the criminal statutes of the United States.

In view of whose provisions it is believed that any person combination of the two sections may be in effect in any case to interfere with the marshal in the discharge of his duties. Any such interference will be rigorously prosecuted.

The marshals and their deputies are at such polling places as peace officers and nonpartisans, and their instructions allow no discrimination in or against any party. An honest impartial and fair court is what the law was designed to provide and its constitutionality has been so strongly upheld and the paramount power of the government so clearly asserted by the supreme court, that it is under no circumstances to be inferred that the railroad company was entitled to the right to use the lands covered by the grant. This would give it the supremacy of the Chippewa officials.

Second. The supreme court may reverse the judgment of the circuit court in which case the parties would find themselves where they stood at the beginning of the litigation with their rights entirely unbroken.

Third. He will hold the law of 1892 to be good as against the act of 1878 and thus confirm the claim of the railroad company to the right to use the lands covered by the grant. This would give it the railroad company the full extent of its claim.

That any authentic statement as to the probable date of the court's hearing will be made by any one implies an impression upon the discretion or integrity of the court, which is felt to be entirely unwarranted, yet from the nature of things it is impossible to obtain any statement in denial of the conflicting rumors so industriously circulated.

The increase in wages, as shown by the statistics of Fifty Cities.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—The cause of Attorney-General Taft has received by Acting Attorney-General and adopted by him was issued September 4, 1892. It contains in addition to the passage referred to by Mr. Aldrich the following in regard to calling on troops and sheriffs' posse:

"In this connection I advise that you and each of your deputies, general and 'special,' have a right to summon to your assistance in peace and qualifying disorder, every person in the district above the age of six, whatever may be their occupation, whether civilian or not, and including the military of all denominations; militia, soldiers or marines, all of whom are alike bound to obey you. The fact that they are organized as military bodies (whether in the state or of the United States), under the immediate command of their own chief, does not in any wise affect their legal character. They are still the posse committatus."

Attorney-General Taft says he finds authority for this construction of the law in an opinion rendered by one of his predecessors, Attorney-General Caleb Cushing, rendered May 27, 1854, and published in "An Attorney-General's Opinion."

Mr. Taft says he prefers to quote from Mr. Cushing because it shows that the law on this point has been settled for many years.

Attorney-General Taft further says in the opinion quoted from, "I need hardly say that there is not a state law or state officer in this country who has jurisdiction opposed to yours in discharging your official duties under the laws of the United States. If such interference shall take place—a thing not—not—you are to disregard it entirely. The laws of the United States are supreme, and so, consequently, in the action of the officers of the United States in enforcing them, there is, as virtually you have already been told, no officer of state whom you may not by summons embody into your own posse; and any state posse already embodied by a sheriff will, with such sheriff be obliged upon your summons, to bring some part of a United States posse and obey you or your deputy acting vice-officer."

This is also adopted by Acting Attorney-General Aldrich.

The Chicago Lake Front Cases.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—The conflicting statements circulated as to the concessions alleged to have been arrived at by the United States supreme court in the Chicago Lake Front cases, have given rise to rumors of stock-baiting manipulations which are difficult to clear away. The remarkable feature of the case is that two stories, one in New York, asserting that the court had decided in favor of the Illinois Central, and one sent to Chicago to the effect that the court had decided in favor of the Illinois Central.

DISAPPOINTED office-seekers who about campaign time leave the Republic party never carry any votes with them.

WAYNE MacNEAR is doing the Republican party more good out of it, by his attack on the Irish people, than he ever done the party when he was a member of it.

The Northumberland, England, community have accepted a reduction in wages of 5 per cent. There is no McKinley bill there to enlarge the demand for labor.

The American people have too much sense to elect an administration pledged to disturb the present business interests of the country, as the candidates on the Democratic ticket are pledged by their delegates.

Some misinformed free trader complains because bladders are on the free list. They were put on the free list in reference to the howling free traders in the raw material of the free trade arguments is largely made up of bladders.

This shows, however, that these people do not appreciate favors.

GOV. CLEVELAND has lost faith in the votes of his own party as is apparent in the fact that in a speech he delivered Tuesday night he declared that there was great danger of Republican corruption Democratic voters. This sounds very silly on the part of a presidential candidate and will hurt him with the own people.

There is not a line or a paragraph in the new tariff law that is not meant to benefit American industries and American labor. And yet those who tried to tear the government to pieces in 1861 are all engaged in a gigantic effort to tear to pieces the laws that have made this country prosper since the war, as no other country has prospered. They were mistaken during the war as to the necessity for it, and they are just as error-ous as to the needs of the government now. Don't let them get the government.

J. R. DIXON, one of the leading attorneys and Democrats of the state who was a member of the National Democratic convention of 1888, which renoun-cated Cleveland, and also a member of the platform committee of that convention, announces his intention of voting for the Harrison elector. And thus they come, not because they are disappointed office-seekers, as most of these are who are drifting into the Democratic party, but because they are patriotic and refuse to accept free trade and wildcat state bank currency and stamp their silver as promising anything but ruin for the country.

A Falsehood Exploded.

There are men who are foolish enough to believe that the Democratic party could not adopt a free-trade policy, because a revenue tariff could not be formed that would produce the necessary revenue to meet the expense of the government, without protecting our manufacturing industries. This is a falsehood which was fully exposed in a speech delivered in Boston recently by David Hall Rice, Mr. Rice said:

Mr. Jackson, then of Mass., went to Rhode Island the other day and stated in a speech that the Democratic party did not intend to abolish protection, "because we cannot raise revenue without protection," and that without protecting our industries, "we cannot have an economic or other," let us prove this, and it will not take long, either.

We collected last year in McKinley tariff and collected in the sum, that we have to raise by a tariff of $100,000,000, and all we have to raise. I affirm that it can all be easily raised without protecting a single important American industry by a tariff "for revenue
only," such as the Democratic platform declares
it to be. It pronounces any other "unconstitutional and robbery," as the following table will show:

Had Not Sleep For Years.

Mr. Jackson, an old resident of Rock Island, and a man of considerable wealth, had slept at night for years except in short saps, owing to incessant congestion. He was advised when very much dowm to try Ballard's Horseradish Syrup and his cough had not improved to such a degree that he could sleep soundly all night; so he had a glass of Ballard's Syrup and he slept soundly all night.

Diamonds.

Every few days we notice some free-trade takes a bit about diamonds being on the free list. This is only another illustration of the fact that the free trade theory must be supported by falsehood and deception, which should condemn the whole bairn theory. Diamonds cut and set pay a tariff of 50 per cent advalorem, and diamonds cut but not set 10 per cent advalorem. The reason for this is apparent. The duty is thus fixed for the purpose of preserving to America the work of setting out diamonds and throwing millions of men out of work unless they accept half their present value.

The secret of Whittie's estate.

This poor Whittie left a larger estate than he could ever have known, and all
we have to raise. I affirm that it can all be easily raised without protecting a single important American industry by a tariff "for revenue
only," such as the Democratic platform declares
it to be. It pronounces any other "unconstitutional and robbery," as the following table will

ROCK PLASTER.

WE THE UNDERSIGNED, contracting plasterers, after much experience and observation, take pleasure in testifying to the practical character of ROCK PLASTER, and while it will remove a not inconsiderable amount of business, namely that of patching, we advocate its use, as it enables us to do work and guarantee the results, and enables us to carry on our trade at all seasons of the year, and modernizes that part of building enterprise which has undergone practically no improvement in the last two thousand years, placing the business of the plasterer on the same footing as that occupied by the other trades through the advent of machinery and improved methods.

THE SUPREME POWER

An Important Circular From the Department of Justice.

POWERS OF UNITED STATES MARSHALS

Every Male Citizen Over Fifteen Years of Age, of Whatever Business or Profession May be Summoned on His Posse.

An Important Circular.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—The department of justice, through Solicitor-General Aldrich, acting attorney-general, has issued an important statement as to the relations of federal and state officers at the election polling places. He says:

"The attention of the department has been called to alleged instructions to the police and state officers in Alabama, Arkansas and New York with reference to their conduct toward duly elected United States marshals as may be in attendance at the polling places. Acting Attorney-General Aldrich rules as follows:

"Such instructions bring the authorizers and all persons attempting to carry them into effect within the provisions of section 5102 of the organic and final statutes of the United States.

In view of whose provisions it is not thought that any person or combination of persons will seek in any way to interfere with the marshals in the discharge of their duties. Any such interference will be rigorously prosecuted.

The marshals and their deputies are at such polling places as peace officers and nonpartisans, and their instructions allow no discrimination for or against any party. An honest ballot and a fair count is what the law was designed to provide, and its constitutionality has been so strongly upheld, and the paramount power of the government in such cases asserted by the supreme court, that it is understood, is satisfactory to the Chicago officials.

Second. The supreme court may reverse the judgment of the circuit court in which case the parties would find themselves where they stood at the beginning of the litigation with their rights undetermined; or,

Third, it may hold the law of 1869 to be valid as against the act of 1873 and thus confirm the claim of the railroad company to the right to use the lands covered by the grant. This would give to the railroad company the full extent of claim.

That no authentic statement as to the probable decision of the court has been given out by any one implies an imputation upon the discretion or integrity of the court, which is felt to be entirely unwarranted, yet from the nature of things it is impossible to obtain any statement in detail of the conflicting rumors so industriously circulated.

The statement that section 2081 is the only section authorizing the appointment of deputies to the marshals and therefore that such appointments can be made only in cities of 30,000 inhabitants or upward, is not the view of the law entertained by the attorney-general or myself, nor has such a view been held or expressed by any attorney-general since the enactment of the law. So far as I can discover, the instructions given by Attorney-General Taft in his circular letter of September 4, 1879, have been continuously acquiesced in."

The Opinions of Attorney-Generals Taft and Caleb Cushing.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—The opinion of Attorney-General Taft referred to by Acting Attorney Aldrich and adopted by him was issued September 4, 1879. It contains in addition to the passages quoted by Mr. Aldrich the following in regard to calling on troops and sheriffs if present:

"In this connection I advise you and each of your deputies, general and special, have a right to summon to your assistance in preventing and quelling disorder, every person in the district above 15 years of age, whatever may be their occupation, whether civilians or not, and including the military of all denominations; militia, soldiers or marines, all of whom are alike bound to obey you. The fact that they are organized as military bodies (whether of the state or of the United States), under the immediate command of their own officers, does not in any wise affect their legal character. They are still the police community."

Attorney-General Taft says he finds authority for this construction of the in his opinion rendered by one of his predecessors, Attorney-General Caleb Cushing, rendered May 27, 1854, and published in "6 Attorney General's Opinions."

Mr. Taft says he prefers to quote from Mr. Cushing because it shows that the law on this point has been settled for many years.

Attorney-General Taft further says in the opinion quoted from: "I need hardly say that there is not a state law or state officer in this country who has jurisdiction opposed to yours in discharging your official duties under the law of the land." This general inference shall take place—the law does not apply to you and does not disregard it entirely. The law of the United States is supreme, and so, consequently, in the action of the officers of the United States in enforcing them. There is, as virtually you have already been told, no officer or state whom you may not by summons embody into your own posse; and any state posse already embodied by a sheriff will, with such sheriff, be obliged, upon your summons, to come part of a United States posse and obey you or your deputy acting virtue of office."

This is also adopted by Acting Attorney-General Aldrich.

The Chicago Lake Front Case.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—The conflicting statements circulated as to the conclusions alleged to have been arrived at by the United States supreme court in the Chicago Lake Front case, have given rise to rumors of stock jobbing manipulations. One remarkable feature of the case is that two stories, one sent to New York, asserting that the court had decided in favor of the Illinois Central, and one sent to Chicago to the effect that the court had decided in favor of the city of Chicago and the state of Illinois and against the Illinois Central railroad, both to be vouchsafed by unimpeachable "confidential" sources of information, and so far as each statement can be traced to a fountainhead, both originated in one and the same source. This adds weight to the suggestion that possibly neither announcement is true, and that both may have been brought forward and taken advantage of to bear or to bear the market on Illinois Central in New York and Chicago. The circumstantial details entered into in both reports as to the way the court was divided on the question assume that Justice Blatchford takes no part in the decision. This assumption is believed to be incorrect. Justice Blatchford was at first disposed to take part in the hearing because he held stock of the Illinois Central railway, but when his associates learned that the stock stood in his name simply as trustee for an estate and that he had not the remotest personal interest or property in it, they insisted upon having the advantage of his views on the case, and it is understood that he has consented to join in the decision. This dispose of the four-to-three division theory as to how the court stands on other statement as to the decision.

Under ordinary circumstances it might be assumed that either one or the other of the two opposing marshals sent out to the court's decision in this case must prove correct, but in point of fact there are three ways in which this case may be decided. The court may affirm the judgement of the United States circuit court rendered by Judge Harlan, in which the judge held that the act of the Illinois legislature of 1869, which granted the Lake Front lands to the railroad, had been repealed by the act of 1873 so far as that repealing act infringed upon vested rights. To that extent he held that the railroad company was entitled to retain the portion of the land surrounding the grant under the provisions of the law of 1869. Further on encroachments or extensions, however, were prohibited. This decision, it is understood, is satisfactory to the Chicago officials.

Second. The supreme court may reverse the judgment of the circuit court in which case the parties would find themselves where they stood at the beginning of the litigation with their rights undetermined; or,

Third, it may hold the law of 1869 to be valid as against the act of 1873 and thus confirm the claim of the railroad company to the right to use the lands covered by the grant. This would give to the railroad company the full extent of claim.

THE IAMS TRIAL.

More Testimony Tending to Show Iams' Trickery.

SWALLOWED TOBACCO FOR A PURPOSE

The Object Being to " Fool the Doctors" and Make Them Think His Sickness Was Caused by the Punishment.

PIITSBURGH, Pa., Nov. 4.—There were about fifty people present when the Iams case was resumed yesterday.

Charles Hatfield, nurse of the tenth regiment, saw Iams strung up. The heel of his right foot was on the ground. Then Iams would change and stand on the heels of his feet. His arms did not always fit his body, and the cord was not tight. Iams asked for a cheev of tobacco, which he swallowed. Witness said: "Iams, you should not have taken that tobacco." Iams said: "I did it for a purpose." He said this while he was still strung up. About five minutes later Iams was cut down. Then he said: "Damn the doctors; we will fool them."

Witness then poured the medicine out and Iams said: "Give me that canister." He took it and took a drink and handed it to witness. There was beer in the canister, and Iams drank about half of it.

"I am going to Iams," he said. "Why did you take that tobacco?" Iams said: "I did it to fool them." Iams then purpose.

"Monday after he was tied up I saw him in Homestead and asked him how he felt. He said he was all right. I asked him how his thumbs were, and he said: "They are all right."

Hatfield said Iams told him that he would have been all right if he had not swallowed the tobacco.

Edward Dougherty, of the tenth regiment, testified that he had seen Iams after he was drummed out of camp, and Iams had said that he was all right, but he would get even with Streator.

William Berryhill saw Iams while he was being strung up. Iams stood on the ball of his feet and part of the hand was on the ground. After he was cut down Iams told him he felt all right and that his thumbs were all right.

On cross-examination witness admitted that he had known down a veteran of the late war because he said Iams' punishment was unjust.

Maj. W. W. Mowry of the tenth regiment testified that he had seen Iams punishment, and showed with a rope over the thumbs of one of the court tipstaves how the close hitch was made.

The testimony closed with the examination of Private Jacobs, who was questioned on minor points.

Mr. Buchanan then asked the court to charge the jury as to Dr. Grimes' conduct in the trial.

Mr. Chapman said: "When an untrained man or officer acts under the instructions of superior officers, he is protected, unless he uses malice. The evidence does not indicate that there was any malice on the part of Dr. Grimes. So far as he is unaccused, it appears to the court that it is a question to be determined whether he is actuated under the instruction of his superiors or not."

Sen. Robbins, counsel for A. L. Hawkins, then requested the court to instruct the jury on behalf of his client.

After a brief consultation among the counsel for the defense, Mr. Braden offered the general points, covering the whole case and all of the defendants. Mr. Braden claimed that no evidence had been introduced to show that the members of the national guard were actuated by malice, ill-will or revenge, and that the punishment was inflicted upon Private W. L. Iams for no other purpose than that of maintaining good order and military discipline in their command, then duty.

The court then allotted each side an hour and a half for argument. Mr. Braden spoke to the jury from 4 to nearly 5 o'clock, when court adjourned until to-morrow morning when the argument will be resumed.

Investigating the Workings of the Chicago Water Rates Office.

CHICAGO, Nov. 4.—Charges against the management of the city water rates office were made by Mr. W. R. Miller, president of the Chicago Water Rates Office, at a meeting of the members of the office, held at 1:30 p.m., after having decided to continue the conference committee. The question of a general strike will be further discussed.

There is no let up in the gripes of the citizens of Chicago, and every effort has been taken to prevent the spreading of the disease among the people. The city has been closed to all visitors, and the police have been sent to the city to prevent the spread of the disease.

Francis Abigail, ex-minister of mines and director of the Bureau of Mines, has been appointed to represent the United States at the international monetary conference at Brussels, November 22, having resigned from the position, as he is opposed to the idea of a general strike.

Some misinformed free trader complains because bladders are on the free list: They were put on the free list in deference to the howling free traders in the raw material of the free trade arguments is largely made up of bladders. This shows, however, that these people do not appreciate favors.

GROVER CLEVELAND has lost faith in the voters of his own party as is evidenced by the fact that in a speech that was great danger of Republicans corrupting Democratic voters. This sounds very silly on the part of a presidential candidate and will hurt him with his own people.

There is not a line or a paragraph in the new tariff law that is not meant to benefit American industries and American labor. And yet those who tried to tear the government to pieces in 1861 are all engaged in a gigantic effort to tear to pieces the laws that have made this country prosper since the war, as no other country has prospered. They were mistaken during the war as to the necessity for it, and they are just as sadly in error as to the needs of the government now. Don't let them get the government.

J. R. DIXON, one of the leading attorneys and Democrats of the state, who was a member of the National Democratic convention of 1888, which renominated Cleveland, and also a member of the platform committee of that convention, announces his intention of voting for the Harrison electors. And thus they come, not because they are disappointed office-seekers, as most of those who are drifting into the Democratic party, but because they are patriotic and refuse to accept free trade and wildest state bank currency and stamp out silver as promising anything but ruin for the country.

A Falsehood Exploded.

There are men who are foolish enough to believe that the Democratic party could not adopt a free-trade policy, because a revenue tariff could not be framed that would produce the necessary revenue to meet the expenses of the government, without protecting our manufacturing industries. This is a falsehood which was fully exposed in a speech delivered in Boston recently by David Hull Rice. Mr. Rice said:

Had Not Sleep For Years.

Mr. A. Jackson, an old resident of Rockford, and manager of the magnificent new Hotel at Rock, informs us he had not slept at night for years except in short saps, owing to incessant coughing. He was advised when very much run down to try Dr. Ballard's Hornbeam Syrup, and immediately found relief. His Cough and his rest improved to such a degree that he could sleep soundly all night; Mr. Jackson states: "I regard Ballard's Hornbeam Syrup superior to any Cough Syrup on the market, and its freedom from opium and morphine leaves no trace after its use." After a few days of this syrup he is well again.

Mr. RAYMOND of Coventry, England, is the youngest cyclist in the world. He is 2½ years old and wheels around on a beautiful little tricycle weighing ten pounds. The child is already a fine rider.

He has produced easily a tariff "for revenue only" more money than we now collect by our protective tariff. Here we have wiped out the protection we now have on every leading industry of the nation.

We see how "unfounded" Gov. Russell's false pretense that we cannot easily levy a tariff "for revenue only" without protection of the industries. This is thus most absurd, the Democratic party stands committed by its platform to wipe out all protection and open our ports to the cheap labor goods of Europe, smashing our own manufactures and throwing millions of men out of work unless they accept half their present pay.

A Sprained Ankle.

This is a common occurrence and one that will let people up ordinarily 8 to 8 weeks, yet we will guarantee Ballard's Snow Liniment to cure any case of sprained ankle in 3 to 4 days if applied twice daily, and immediately.

Diamonds.

Every few days we notice some free trader takes a list about diamonds being on the free list. This is only another illustration of the fact that the free trade theory must be supported by falsehood and deception, which should condemn the whole tariff theory. Diamonds cut and set pay a tariff of 50 per cent ad valorem, and diamonds cut but not set 10 per cent ad valorem. The reason for this is apparent. The duty is thus fixed for the purpose of preserving to America the work of setting out diamonds in the manufacture of jewelry.

Diamonds in the rough are on the free list to stimulate the importation of diamonds in the rough with the view of giving the American workmen the work of cutting and setting them in the manufacture of jewelry. The plan of the tariff law in the case of diamonds, as is the case in relation to any other import, is adopted with the view of creating a demand for labor in this country. Thus through a protective tariff bill, those who have patriotism enough and sense enough to examine such a law, will find that the interest of American labor is the first thing consulted. The free trader's mouth and the free trade's vote is equally against American labor first, last, and all the time. He has no concern for the welfare of American workmen, but goes on the theory that unless the American workmen can compete with foreign labor he must get out of business and spend the time looking at his starving family.

EDWARD MICHAEL French blacksmith, is claimed to have had, through the invention of a velocipede, to the discovery of the bicycle. A monument in his honor is to be erected at Erie-land, his birthplace.

A Cure for Cholera.

There is no use of any one suffering with the cholera when Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea remedy can be purchased at a very low price. A few minutes and cure in a short time. I have tried it and know. — W. H. Clinton, Helvetia, N. J. The epidemic at Helvetia was at first believed to be cholera, but subsequent investigation proved it to be a violent form of dysentery, almost as dangerous as cholera. This remedy was used with great success. For sale by Swearingen & Tyler, druggists.
